

What to do if you are showing symptoms of coronavirus (COVID-19) at work

Go home and do not go to work

Get tested

Financial support is available while you wait for test results

Only return to work once you have received a negative test result

